Discover Betws-y-Coed

Nicknamed the 'Gateway to Snowdonia', Betws-y-Coed is a pretty honeypot location and one of North Wales' most popular inland resorts. Nestled in the heart of the Conwy Valley where four rivers converge, the magical setting has a distinctly alpine feel enhanced by the surrounding Gwydyr Forest, providing a stunning scenic backdrop.

Breathe the fresh air; enjoy walking one of the many trails around the village, or witness some of the superb natural attractions nearby.

A great base for exploration, Betws-y-Coed is ideally located to discover everything the area has to offer, from the dramatic surroundings of the Snowdonia National Park to train links with North Wales' coastal towns.
